

Women

I am really confuse sometimes to see and know the ways of the world towards us women. In the world of the man we are living as a life partner being a wife, as a mother giving him a birth and then taking care of him till he gets married.

And then some of us being sisters help them out ironning clothes ,making up breakfast and surving them dinner at nightand are their daughters also and still we dont know where do we stand in the eye of the MAN?

Anyone going to explain that to me where do we stand?

hmmmz cute, ur are right to asks that were do we stand in the eye of the MAN? after all the dedication, sincere and loving,caring of service to them until ourselves dropped, still we dont know where women stand in the eye of the man... so many good, pleasant, heartwarming thoughts & describable feelings for women but still WHERE DO WOMEN STANDS IN THE EYE OF THE MAN?

more or less, women stands in the center of mens' eye. women is the center of everything in mens' sense, nerves and heart! mens' are not as showy as women in letting them know where it stands. but they show it some other ways where women doesnt know. Mens' are not so actually expressive infront of women as women are to men's infront. look above from this post, at those wonderful and heart tingling thoughts for women

Cute, i may or may not able to answer ur question sufficingly but somehow u get my point!

You have raised the good point where we stand in the eye of the man after having so many relationships with man and ruling his heart and giving him love.And maria beautifully have replied you but still none us so much sure or can tell our place.

Man's eyes changes when it come to lust and sex and he think we are worhless not even close match to the money power infact they can buy us with money and our bodies which they only praise just in the time of need or while putting thier hungry lusty eyes on us.So is money got more worth in man's eye or woman? Thats the main question?

You have raised the good point where we stand in the eye of the man after having so many relationships with man and ruling his heart and giving him love.And maria beautifully have

replied you but still none us so much sure or can tell our place.

Man's eyes changes when it come to lust and sex and he think we are worhless not even close match to the money power infact they can buy us with money and our bodies which they only praise just in the money money money...against woman? hmmmz i dont think so - that money more worth in man's eye. its still a woman is worth in man's eye! money may be on it, but its just a bridge to get to the woman

time of need or while putting thier hungry lusty eyes on us.So is money got more worth in man's eye or woman? Thats the main question?